Meeting with Grallspace on 10 July 1952

Contact Report No. 10

1. On 10 July 1952 Grallspace met [] in the hall of the operational apartment building at 11:00 hours and said that the apartment was being painted and it would be necessary to go elsewhere.

2. Grallspace and [] proceeded to a neighboring kaféhaus, where a brief meeting was held. Grallspace said that he had gone to the operational apartment on the evening of 9 July and had discovered that it was in the last stages of being painted. On 10 July he had gone to the door and had heard the painters talking and so had intercepted [] before he could enter the apartment.

3. Although operational matters were kept to a minimum, Grallspace said that his trip to Germany had been interesting and rewarding and that he had a number of interesting things to report. He mentioned that he had been able to get documented as a representative of the Linde Company.

4. After arranging to meet Grallspace in the operational apartment on 12 July at 0900 hours, [] left Grallspace at 1300 hours. [] told Grallspace that he was sure the painters would have finished their work by that date; however, alternate arrangements were made to cover the eventuality that the painters still were working in the operational apartment.
